WILLIAM MARTAIN, PROPRIETOR

This Hotel, which is entirely new and furnished throughout in the most modern style, will have furniture now open for the reception of travelers and boarders. Rolla is the county seat of Phelps County, situated midway between St. Louis and Springfield on the line of the south-western branch railroad and is one of the most beautiful and fast-growing towns in south-western Missouri. The Phelps House is now the best quarters of the Springfield mail coaches and travelers will find this one of the most desirable homes in the west. The proprietor will devote his whole time to the comfort of his guests. His tables will be furnished with the best the country affords and he hopes by strict attention to business to merit and receive a liberal share of patronage. Charges moderate.
